

Tamarind Hill Associates, LLC

At Tamarind Hill Associates...We Cater To Your Business

CORE MAGAZINE AT THE CENTER OF VIRGIN ISLANDS URBAN CULTURE

Third Time Is A Charm

CORE Magazine announces the release of its third issue which features De Apostle; a St. Croix native who started performing at the tender age of thirteen. Apostle made his first mark on the VI music industry when he penned a song by the name of 'Good Morning Sisters & Brothers' which was a social commentary on the murder rate in the VI from the perspective of a young person growing up in Harvey Projects.

Who's in CORE Magazine's November 2007 Issue

Twin City Massive-CORE Magazine spotlights a host of Cruzian artists, models and personalities in this issue: Bambu Station, DJ Poppy Pops of Isle95, Mada Nile, Lady Passion, Kenya Eugene, and CORE Fashion features Vanessa Hamilton from—BET's College Hill Season 4.

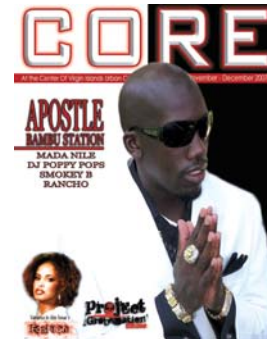

CORE didn't forget to 'BIG UP' the rest of the VI Massive! This issue also showcases artists and personalities from Rock City and Chocolate City too: Daddy Rancho, Tony T of 105Jamz, Jase, DJ Dre of ZROD, Bosco of Beat Down Beats, Smokey B, and Ripper.

You can find coverage of the first annual VI Idol competition, the first VI Fashion Week, 'Dollar fo dollar' —a reenactment of the 1892 Coal Workers Strike, Westline Productions August Car Show and Capital Productions Tortola Car Show. CORE also dedicated a page to the Virgin Islands own musical icon—Jon Lucien.

If that's not enough sample some poetry by the VI Callaloo Poets, view AhmadZFashion designs, check out the Monkey Wrench Crew our 'Bad Ride Spotlight' or read about Bruce Sewer an accomplished triathlete.

More Details

Volume 1, Issue 3, Nov-Dec 2007

November-December 2007 cover featuring De Apostle

Music In Our Schools Month

As we embark on the planning of our first anniversary, we want to celebrate the growth of our vision by giving back to the programs which ensure the development of future musicians.

Go Online for More Details

Thank You To Our Supporters, Advertisers, and Well Wishers!

A heartfelt thank you goes out to our supporters, advertisers and partners for trusting and believing in our dreams, it takes heart in these times to invest in a group of young people. Because of your courage to trail blaze we honor you!

We want the community at large to embrace CORE as a definite plug to—The Center of Virgin Islands' Urban Culture.

Left to Right: Chris 'kaya-lah' George, Naeem Joseph, JeT'aime Cerge, Earl 'supah' Daniels

For more information on CORE Magazine visit us at <http://www.coremagazine.vi> or email info@coremagazine.vi